

Fund description

The EQ Emerging Markets Sustainable Bond Fund invests in a diverse range of securities issued by governmental entities, agencies, supranational organizations, and corporations in Emerging Markets, with a strong emphasis on Sustainability. Leveraging Enabling Capital's proven expertise in impact investing, the Fund actively supports the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs) through investments that generate measurable social and environmental benefits. It primarily targets upper-middle, lower-middle, and low-income countries as classified by the World Bank. To manage risk and enhance operational efficiency, the Fund may also hold sustainability-neutral assets such as cash, money market instruments, and derivatives.

Risk description

Typically lower return and risk Typically higher return and risk

The performance of the units depends on the investment policy as well as on market trends of individual investments of the fund and cannot be determined in advance. In this context, it should be noted that the value of the units may rise above or fall below the issue price at any time. There can be no guarantee that the investor will recover the full amount he initially invested. The below list is not an exhaustive list of all potential risk factors.

The fund is exposed to risks associated with debt instruments such as interest rate risk, credit risk, default risk, currency risk, operational risk, liquidity risk, credit downgrading risk, sovereign debt risk, credit ratings risk, valuation risk, risks associated with debt instruments with loss-absorption features and emerging market risk. Additionally, this fund is exposed to risks from global changes in industrial, political and economic conditions. For currency hedged unit classes, the fund is also subjected to currency hedging risks.

Further elaboration of the above risks may be found in section 8 "Risk Warning Notice" of the Prospectus.

Selling restrictions

The fund may only be marketed in the Principality of Liechtenstein and Switzerland (qualified investors). Where units are distributed outside Liechtenstein, the pertinent provisions in the respective country shall apply. The units have not been registered under the United States Securities Act 1933. With regard to distribution in the United States or to US citizens or persons resident in the United States, the restrictions detailed in the constituent documents shall apply.

Further information

Investors should be aware of the fact that the value of investments can decrease as well as increase. Therefore, a positive performance in the past - even if it relates to longer periods - is no reliable indicator of a positive performance in the future. The risk of price and foreign currency losses and of fluctuations in return as a result of unfavorable exchange rate movements cannot be ruled out. There is a risk that investors will not receive back the full amount they originally invested. Forecasts are not a reliable indicator of future performance.

The commissions and costs charged on the issue and redemption of units are charged individually to the investor and are therefore not reflected in the performance shown. We disclaim, without limitation, all liability for any losses or damages of any kind, whether direct, indirect or consequential nature that may be incurred through the use of this publication.
